

Oonagh Cremins and Tricia Kelly have just launched a new company called The Innovate Room focussed on delivering Revenue, Distribution and Project Management advice and support in a multi sector environment with specific focus on the Hospitality Business. They will provide strategic and tactical advice as well as education and skills training in how to optimise both online and offline revenue streams for properties. Together they have a thorough understanding of how to reduce cost of distribution to enhance overall profitability.

The Innovate Room – have this week launched their new website the innovateroom.ie
